The quality that Chicagoland has grown to love comes to Indiana University.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Monday, August 27, 2007: DSquared Entertainment announced today that it is moving its operations to Bloomington, Indiana, home of Indiana University. As a student at Indiana University, Doug Donoghue, owner of DSquared Entertainment, decided to move the company to Indiana instead of placing it on hiatus until the summer of 2008.

DSquared Entertainment was founded in 2004 in Kenilworth, Illinois, a suburb of Chicago. It's owner, Doug Donoghue, has DJ'd all over Chicagoland, including but not limited to Sweet 16's, High School Proms, Homecomings and Turnabouts, College parties at Northwestern University and University of Illinois at Chicago, and even night clubs. He is best known for his mixing and having 100% satisfaction from his previous clients.

For booking information, references, or to request a demo, please contact owner Doug Donoghue at (847) 404-8173, or by email at dougdon@gmail.com.
